“Unmasking the Mysteries”

When we work together and have a better understanding of how we each serve the families in our care, we can provide better service in the continuum of care. There is no cost for these classes and free parking is available. Our next classes are offered:

- ◆ Tuesday, August 22rd at 3:00 PM
- ◆ Wednesday, September 20th at 4:30 PM
- ◆ Friday, October 27th at 3:00 PM

Program instruction includes a Power Point presentation with accompanying handouts, a tour of the funeral home including the casket/urn room and the cremation observation room, and a demonstration of the body identification process using the Private Family Gathering method.

Please call Julie at 614-429-5703 or email jolds@schoedinger.com to reserve your seat.

At the conclusion of this program, counselors and social workers will be able to:

1. Describe 3 acceptable things to say or do for individuals or families mourning the death of someone special to them.
2. Describe 3 roles the funeral home plays in the grief and healing process.
3. Explain how economic factors affect decision-making for the financially challenged, and the ethical and moral treatment of this special population.

*Schoedinger Funeral and Cremation Service is an approved provider of continuing education by the State of Ohio Counselor, Social Worker and Marriage and Family Therapist Board, approval number RCS011301.
