

Angela Loretta Loe

October 26, 1932 - June 30, 2021

Angela Loretta (Kearney) Loe, 88, was called home to our Lord Jesus Christ June 30, 2021. Angela, "Angie", was a beautiful and loving wife, mother of five, grandmother of 10 and she will be missed greatly. Angie was born on October 26, 1932. She was raised in Springfield, Ohio, along with her two sisters and four brothers. She graduated from Catholic Central High School in 1950. She moved to Columbus, Ohio in 1953, after marrying her husband, Robert Loe. They enjoyed a wonderful life of 61 years together, until he passed away in 2014. Angie loved to sing, dance, and play the piano, especially for an audience! Among her many other talents were painting, decorating, jewelry making, and sewing. She loved to attend auctions, thrift stores, and garage sales, always looking for treasures and always keeping the needs of others in mind.

Angie worked as a secretary for most of her married life. She became a loan officer for the Department of HUD, a job she was extremely proud of, until she retired in December of 1992 at the age of 60. Throughout her lifetime, Angie was a member of Toastmasters International where she learned public speaking; a member of Altar Rosary Society, Decorative Artists League of London, and several choirs, including St. Patrick's Church of London, Ohio, Elderly United (1992-1994) and Western Electric (1967 - 1972). Throughout all her accomplishments in her lifetime, she cherished being a wife and mother the most.

Angela is survived by her children Todd Loe, Andrew (Robin) Loe, Julie (Chris) Yoder and Jane (Rob) Loe; daughter-in-law Mary T. Loe, brothers Thomas and Michael Kearney and sisters-in-law Mary Beth Kearney, Lorraine Bryson and Mary M. Loe; her grandchildren Ben Loe, Ryan (Ashley) Loe, Beth (John) Moore, Danielle Loe, Nick Loe, Jacob Loe, Henry (Shayla) Loe, Amanda Loe, Joseph and Colton Hampton; and her first great-grandchild on the way. Angie has many more nieces, nephews and family.

Angela is preceded in death by her beloved husband Robert Loe, devoted son Brian Loe, siblings Eleanor Corp, James Kearney, Barbara Jean Taborn and Paul Kearney.

“ Gone Home

Does love still last?
Then do not weep for me
When from this mortal cast
I am at length set free.
For I am free,
and gone is all my pain.
If you have love for me
Don't wish me back again.
Oh loved ones dear,
Now you are left alone,
Have not a doubt or fear
I have just gone home.

Phill Rawlins (1917 - 2008)

My Condolences to Julie Yoder and family, may God keep you during these difficult times.

“ I remember the whiffle ball games with all the neighborhood kids in the middle of Wilton Drive. My batting average was abysmal, but it was probably due to bad pitching.

I was 13 or 14 years old and learning how to sew. I had a terrible time with buttonholes. Mrs. Loe offered to help, and we (she) made tailored buttonholes for my suit jacket. Didn't I look snazzy!

I still cannot hit a ball to save my life, but I can make a tailored buttonhole thanks to Mrs. Loe.

My sympathy to the Loe family. Your mom was a wonderful person.

“ Mrs. Loe was a wonderful person and mother. I remember her so well growing up as her neighbor and playing with all of the Loe children. I spent the night many times with Julie and Mrs. Loe was always so nice to me. I remember her the best in the water battles we had. She would be laughing and having so much fun. So that is how I picture Mrs. Loe, young and laughing. She was also so many other things for us young girls to look up to. She was a woman of faith, she worked when most women stayed home, she had 5 children she took good care of, she had a clean home, was involved with her children, she loved her husband and was married for a very long time. The list goes on about her accomplishments and I am so glad that she was a part of my life. I am so sorry and send my condolences to the family for their loss. I am a person of faith and I do believe Mrs. Loe is in a beautiful place with people she loves but it is sad for everyone left behind. It was wonderful growing up next to the Loe's.

“ Aunt Angie--your laugh and smile were always around at each family gathering we had throughout the years. She was always talking and sharing stories about the Kearney's that always made for a memorable time. Say hello to my mom (Aunt Dee), Aunt Ellie, Aunt Barbara, Uncle Jim, Uncle Bob, Uncle Don and Uncle Paul. Tell them we miss you all and will see you soon. Love and hugs:

“ I am Mary Loe's sister and was so happy to meet Angie and get to know her a little bit. My fondest memory will be seeing her at Beth's wedding a few weeks ago. She was elegant and so joyful. She loved seeing Beth get married. Rest In Peace, Angie. My deepest condolences to her family.
