“ I met Brad through my brother in law (Mark Bramer). It's been several years ago, but Brad & Orbetta and they're daughters used to come to cookouts and get together at Marks house. I remember Brad always being so much fun. He really was such a good guy. I'm so sorry for your loss Orbetta and girls. Rest In Peace Brad.
Sincerely, Cathy Thomas

“ So sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Brad was our neighbor for over 20 years and he was such a funny great guy. He had such a great sense of humor. He was even funny when he was grumpy and that is what made him so special. He is already missed he would yell out that basement window when I would be working in the yard. Just looking at that window brings sadness.

“ I went to school with Brad. He had such a great sense of humor. The Walnut Heights Civic Association sponsored yearly trips to see a Cincy Reds double header. On one of them, it was super hot. We were only a few rows up right next to 3rd base where Johnny Bench was playing at the time. Brad was down to just his cut-off jean shorts and a straw hat (that looked like Mrs. Howell on Gillian's Island wore) that he'd borrowed from one of the ladies in our group. Brad kept calling out, "Hi Johnny!" "Ohhhh Johnny!" in a very feminine voice and waving at Johnny Bench. The look on Johnny Bench's face was priceless. He even covered his face with his glove at one point because he was laughing so hard. It was even on the evening highlights on TV. Every time Johnny Bench is mentioned, I remember Brad and chuckle. My sympathies to his family for their loss. Sincerely, LuAnne Lilly-Bucco

“ I grew up in walnut heights and all our parents were great friends and all us kids were great pals. Well I am three years younger than Brad. My dad, Ed Bloom, was the football coach for the older boys with Brad being one of his players. Well dad took Brad and Kelly Alexander and I think three other guys and me to the drive in movie and it was a scary movie. I was sitting beside my dad and he tapped me and out his finger to his mouth so as to say shush or give me a warning that he was up to something. Well just as someone in the haunted house in the movie opened the coffin , my dad pulled the seat handle and let the front seat go flying backwards just at the same time. I swear all those boys screamed like girls and ran out of the car. My dad and I laughed so hard we cried. I am so very sorry to hear of his passing and I bet Brad and my dad and Jerry are up in heaven talking Buckeye football. O-H
