“ I send all of my love to Graham's dad and family. I hope this is okay to post these pictures here and to share....Graham, Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your life. Thank you, your dad, and your family for allowing me to join your family get togethers. Most importantly, thank you for getting me and for being my friend. You understood the loss and grief I went through year after year and I understood yours. We understood that you never get over a person you love and you never stop missing them. Instead, we learn to cope and that we are all doing the best we can. Thank you for never judging me and for never saying I'm crazy or to get over it. Thank you for providing me companionship and for allowing me to be me. Thank you for never pulling away from me or cutting me off through my darkest hours, but instead you embraced me and showed me love. I love you more than time has allowed me to express to you and show you. You will always have a special place in my heart. I will love you forever and I know we will see each other again. Your friend, Liz Sanchez P.S. You will always be my Graham-Cracker!

“ Graham. My brother. It doesn't seem real... but it is. I'm sorry I didn't get to say more to you before you left. If I would have known it was that last time I was going to see you in my life I would have said more. I'm glad we hung out on your birthday. And on Kks. Finally saw the CD cover. I love you and I'll miss you. Your brother Tahl.

“ Graham was my friend ..
it took me until this moment to get to this point ,
To read about him and look at the memories ,
I guess it just doesn't seem real, I can hear his voice right now in my head , i get the chills,
I can hear him right now talking about my tacos ,
He had a pure and good heart, I will never forget the times we had together , I still want to call him up just to vent or just to have good conversation with him , he will forever be remembered and missed, really sad you had to go so soon, just glad I got to hug you a few days before , just wish it wasn't the last hug, love you so much

“ A good memory of Graham was when he and my boys were very young.
The three of them would play together when we were at the Christmas parties.
They were wild but they had a good time.
David saw him a while back. They had a nice chat about old times.
So sad.
