“ My great wonderful “Back up Dad”. I was so lucky, when things were difficult he stepped right up and opened his heart to me. He would laugh and say “I just told so and so about you and he would laugh as he would say his daughter” and they would be confused as he only had one daughter and was not me. But he made me feel very special and we all know how special he was to all of us. He loved telling the story, he woke up on his 50th Birthday and ran out into his yard to rip out a sign someone had put there without his permission, the sign was done by myself and co-worker where he called on us with his famous Granny rolls, anyway just as he was about to rip out sign he seen it said “It’s nifty to be fifty” and he loved telling that story. Then we came up with the slogan “Great to be alive at 75”. And “Mighty at Ninety”. I will miss him so very much and would like to thank all of his family for sharing him with me.
