“ I miss you so much. And now that Ishi is gone too I don't know what to do. But I know that you have Ishi with you and Petey now. I tried to take care of him just like you wanted me to. He's not sick anymore and he's most probably very happy that he's with you again! I wish I could have you both back. I wasn't ready to say goodbye to Ishi, it happened too fast. My heart is broken and will always be but I'll learn how to live with it. Please hold Ishi for me and tell him that I love him. Love you, Petey and Ishi always and forever xx

“ I love you dad and me too :0) xxx We miss you so much that I cant put into words how much we think of you and love you dad and granddad. We are trying to be positive like you want us to be and "smile" through all of our tears xxx Tears because we miss you so much even tho we know you would not like us being so saddened. We do know that you are with us all the time and trying really hard to help us through all of this hurting and such deep feeling of loss and that something is missing all of the time. But we must remember that you would not like us to feel this way so we pull ourselves together for awhile and try and do something until the next moment when again we think of you and how much we love and miss you dearest dad and granddad and best friend and for Petey as she always calls you "the love of her life". "Ishi is doing ok too and he misses you but he is helping to keep Petey ok and he is dancing for you all of the time. We know you are flying and soaring with your second pair of wings all over the world helping to keep all of us who love and miss you so much cheered even if it only lasts for a moment or two. We do have so many wonderful and happy memories and we will be able to think of them sometime soon.....we try but our hearts are so broken right now that we are too sad to be able to stay as happy as we should...so we will do what it takes as you always say dad....do the best you can to make it work....xxx and we will. I love you dearest dad and me too. xxxx0x0x0x0x JOY Wiemer Tolliver xx God Bless You Dad and Granddad and please keep helping us all so we can "smile" like we know you want us too :0) x

“ I love you Grandad and always will! I think about you everyday no matter what I'm doing. Even though your not here with me in person I still feel you here in spirit. I will always remember all the advice you gave me and all the fun things we did together! I hope you are watching over me all the time!

Love, Jenna xxx

“ We moved into our home down the street from Petey and Jim nearly 17 yrs. ago. I used to talk to Jim nearly everyday when he would walk Bishi. We become more than friends. He and Petey became my family here in Ohio. Jim filled in for my husband when he could not attend some Father/Son events at school with Logan. All of my children loved Jim like a grandfather. What a terrific man he was and what a wonderful legacy he left behind. We will always treasure the time we had with him and I feel honored to call him my friend. We love you Petey, you know where we are if you ever need anything, anytime. Bless you all.

Love,

Bobby, Jane, Elizabeth, Jaclyn, and Logan Barnhart
