“ My older sister Christy was and is still in the hospital. She wasn't able to pay her respects. I know She would want me to share a couple of her wonderful memories. She lived with you and Mom off and on for a few year. She loved cooking and cleaning for you and mom. She would take your treats up to you and Mom for a bedtime snack. She would help you with lights on the back porch for Christmas. She loved you Pops so much. She will miss you dearly.

“ One of my memories of grandpa was going to see him with my grandma at the senior living home. I would get bored and start to dance. He would say that I should be a dancer when I grow up. He loved telling me jokes. One thing he wouldn't forget is the kiss on the cheek when I left.

“ One more memorie of many...I would start my day by calling my Pops and Mom to say Good Morning. (Even though I would stop there later in the day, just to see them:) Pops would answer the phone in his kind manner.We would talk about the day's agenda. If I was working he would say the same thing he would say to my mom before she retired and to his daughter Kim. You know they say, A Working Woman is a Happy Woman. We would laugh. I would say I don't know all about that! Followed by, I don't know who you've been talking too... What I wouldn't give for that phone call one more time. My Pops was a Good Man, with a heart of gold. I was a lucky girl to have him for My Pops. I was even luckier to have them for My Parents.

“ John Smith Family--
Please accept our most sincere and deepest sympathies on the loss of John. John was a brother officer of the Columbus Police Department and, as such, he will be dearly missed.
He had a long life, living to 92, and I know you, his family, will miss him also.

We pray that Our Lord and Savior will surround each of you with His comforting arms and give you His peace. May your sadness turn to gladness knowing one day we will meet with Jesus at His throne.
