

Lenore S. Stafford Jurg

February 11, 1948 - January 15, 2021

Lenore Susan Stafford Jurg, 72, passed away on January 15, 2021 in Dublin, Ohio. She was born on February 11, 1948 in Montreal, Quebec, Canada to the late Gwendolyn Halliday and Thomas Stafford. Lenore (Lee) grew up with her three siblings, Tommy, Timmy and Gina, in Montreal. After graduating from Villa Maria Convent, which was a high school run by nuns in Montreal, Lenore began working as a dental hygienist in downtown Montreal. She married her husband Anthony in 1972 and had their first-born son, Russell, in 1975. She was happy to become a full time stay at home mom. In 1981 she welcomed their second son, Ryan, into the world. She absolutely loved being a mom to her two sons. She did everything with them, making sure they had an amazing childhood, supporting her sons in everything that they did. Taking care of her children was a dream come true for her.

In 1991, after the passing of her mother, Gwendolyn, an amazing job opportunity for her husband, Anthony, came up to move her family to the United States. Her family decided to move to Dublin, Ohio in August of 1991. The transition of moving to a new country was very difficult for her in the beginning while she was still grieving from the loss of her mom. But Lenore had a natural ability to make friends easily with her sweet, genuine nature which eventually made her settle into her new surroundings. Once her boys were old enough, she decided to follow her passion of working with animals and became a certified professional groomer for dogs and cats. She had always loved being around animals as a young child growing up in Canada. By becoming a groomer, it gave her an opportunity to find a career that she absolutely loved doing every day. Over her 20-year career as a groomer, she became one of the best and sought-after groomers in central Ohio with her attention to detail and making her customers' pets feel safe. You could say she was "the pet whisperer for grooming".

When she was younger, she loved to ride horses out west in Jasper, Alberta, Canada while she worked at a student-run hotel in the summers. She loved everything to do with nature and was very spiritual. Lenore loved all kinds of music and loved to watch movies, especially in the movie theaters to watch the newest movies with both sons, Russell and Ryan. Before or after the movies, she loved going to lunch or dinner with her sons. She enjoyed playing board games and cooking up meals in the kitchen with her husband. In her free time, she enjoyed meeting up with her son, Russell, at the park to watch her granddog, Oakley, play with her ball or with other dogs. She enjoyed reading meaningful poetry quotes, wide ranging books, and also believed in the power of astrology with horoscopes. She took pleasure watching game shows in the mornings, watching her favorite soap operas during the afternoons, and loved watching "Dancing with Stars" on Monday evenings.

Heaven gained another angel. Lenore was always very giving and caring for everyone around her. She was someone that always wanted to help people out in whatever way she could, whenever she could. She gave so much of herself unconditionally, even when she wasn't strong. She was always charitable, so it is no surprise that her last gesture of her life was selfless. Her last wish was to be an organ donor. And because of this gift there are three families that we now share a special bond with. She truly has the heart of an angel. There are no words to describe how much she will be missed and how much she was loved by so many.

Lenore is survived by her husband of almost 50 years, Anthony; her eldest son, Russell; her youngest son, Ryan; older brother, Tom Stafford, younger sister, Georgina McCutcheon; her two loved dogs, Oakley and Lulu; and six nieces and nephews in Canada and in the Netherlands.

Lenore is in a better place now with her mother, Gwendolyn, who passed away in 1991, her father, Thomas, who passed away when Lenore was only 5 years old, her brother, Tim, who passed recently in 2018, her loving grandparents and all the loved pets she has had throughout her life.

May you Rest in Peace and feel all the love and comfort now being reunited with all your loved ones in Heaven.

Arrangements entrusted to SCHOEDINGER DUBLIN. Due to the current circumstances, a private service will take place on Thursday, January 21, 2021 at 11am.

Comments

“ I was blessed to have had such an amazing mom. She was an Angel here on earth and she is an Angel now in heaven. I love and miss my mom so much. It's been a little over a month since she passed away and I still can't believe she has passed. There's not a second that goes by that I don't think of her and all of the amazing and kind things she's done for me throughout my life. She was always there for me no matter what the situation was. My mom had the biggest heart. I'm holding on to the day when I'll be reunited with her in heaven. I love you and miss you sooo much mom. I'd give up everything I have to have more time with you in this life Mom
Everything I do for the rest of my life will be a tribute and in honor of you and the love that you gave me always.

Russell Jurg - February 16 at 10:50 AM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Lenore S. Stafford Jurg.

January 26 at 11:24 PM

“ Dear aunt Lee,

Although we haven't seen each other often, i remember the times you came over with uncle Tony. Buying some treats and some "kibbeling" at the market in Hengelo. Not far from the place i work now. You were such a warm person and i always felt welcome. You will be missed!

Tony, Russell and Ryan; You will be in my thoughts.

Debby Niehenker

Debby Niehenker-Groothedde - January 21 at 06:33 AM

“ My Dearest Aunt Lee,

We didn't see each other that much because of the distance, but when we had the moments to see each other, you always gave me a warm family welcome...infact you gave me a feeling that we saw each other every day.

We shared some memories, like those days at the kitchen when we visiting you in America. You baked and baked and baked nice treats....especially for me.

It's sad you have to leave us so soon and so sudden, I would have like to see you again, so you can bake some more treats for me.

You were such a kind loving wife and mom who raised 2 fine boys.

I gonna mis you Aunt Lee, but you will never be missed!

Your Cousin Robert Niehenker.

Robert Niehenker - January 21 at 05:29 AM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Judy - January 20 at 05:57 PM

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Lenore S. Stafford Jurg.

January 20 at 05:25 PM

“ Beloved Lee will always be in our memories .
Peggy & Rien Jurg

Rien Jurg - January 20 at 04:21 PM

“ Sweetest Sunrise Bouquet was purchased for the family of Lenore S. Stafford Jurg.

January 20 at 03:16 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

stineke Niehenker-Jurg - January 20 at 01:11 PM

“ My heartfelt sincerest sympathies go out to all during your time of loss. Auntie Lee, you will forever be loved. Sending love and comfort to all. XO

Tobi Staples - January 20 at 12:54 PM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Lenore S. Stafford Jurg.

January 20 at 12:43 PM

“ Full Of Love Bouquet was purchased for the family of Lenore S. Stafford Jurg.

January 20 at 12:42 PM

“ Will miss you

Heidi Niehenker - January 20 at 12:41 PM

“ Lenore was a lovely person who I knew through her son, Russ, only too briefly. I will always remember her gracious hosting of us for a post season celebratory cookout along with Russ, Tony and a few fellow Aeronauts on a warm late summer day. Thoughts and prayers to all who hold her in their hearts. Rest In Peace.

Tom Hollett - January 20 at 12:38 PM

“ Rosemary Burns lit a candle in memory of Lenore S. Stafford Jurg

Rosemary Burns - January 20 at 11:51 AM

“ I knew your mom well from her time in Montreal. My mother Mary's best Friend. Lee had a wonderful sense of humour, she always made me laugh!! Lee inspired me to become a dog groomer as well. I wish I had had a chance to see her in person again!! My deepest sympathy

Susan - February 01 at 05:19 PM