“ Kind, patient, and loving. I have so many wonderful memories that I'll cherish forever, but I'll miss our long conversations about anything and everything the most. You were always so easy to talk to, you had so much to say and teach. Thank you. I love you grandma. You are forever a part of me and in my heart always. Until we meet again.

“ It's always hard to say goodbye to a person that you love, but there are an abundance of memories that Lora's close-knit family will cherish. Lora and Jerry have been in my life for many years since they lived 2 doors away while I was growing up. Life marches on, and both of our families moved away from each other. Fate has a way of stepping in, and wonder of all wonders, Jerry and Lora's daughter, Diana,... and my son, Danny found each other, fell in love, and married. So, I got to join in on some of those cherished memories. I know we all find comfort in knowing that Lora's final journey took her to a place that she now can rest in peace. My love and sympathies go to all her family.
