“ We are saddened to learn of Sylvia's passing after saying goodbye to her husband Don (our lifelong friend) last year. We have many fond memories of Sylvia and Don when we shared stories of growing up on the Columbus hilltop at West High reunions and OSU Homecomings. Our thoughts and prayers are with Sylvia and her family.

“ My condolences to Aunt Syl's family and friends in the US. I miss both her and Uncle Don. As I think about her, I remember her wonderful laugh and her practical advice. She and Uncle Don gave one of our favorite Christmas traditions to us - every year when we unpack the Christmas decorations, we take out the small stuffed snowman that plays the Ohio State fight song when you press its tummy. My daughter has been dancing to that music for years. I loved seeing the picture included here of my dad, Aunt Syl, sister Karyn, my daughter Lily and I with Uncle Don behind the camera the last time we were all together. From her niece, Kristen Jester
